BLAST FROM THE PAST

An anthropological exploration of sports, games and play

★ What are we looking for?

We are asking people to dig through their attics, family trunks and wardrobes to find objects (sport kits, souvenirs, photos, medals or magazines) that capture special memories related to sport, games and play. Send us a video of you speaking about your object or write a story and send us a photo!

Tell your story!

★ Who can participate?

Anyone interested in anthropology, history and sport.

★ How do I submit my story?

Send us a photo of your object with a description of max 100 words. Alternatively, send us a short video clip, max 1 min 30 sec. Further submission guidelines can be found at: www.discoveranthropology.org.uk

To find out more about the RAI's oral histories project and download an application form visit www.discoveranthropology.org.uk or contact Nafisa Fera the RAI's Education Officer: education@therai.org.uk / 02073870455

Deadline for submissions: 16th November 2011
